Jigs & Reels by Joanne Harris, Review: Delicious dark humour

A debut collection of 22 silly and predictable stories. Only one comes even close to the level of the least of Harris's five novels (Holy Fools, 2004, etc.). Introduced by irritatingly chatty author's notes ("I got the idea for this story on a Saturday morning"), the pieces are mostly monologues by trendy folk, too often depending upon sophomoric satire rather than plot, character ...
